First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not keep silent,
and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest,
until her vindication shines out like the dawn,
and her salvation like a burning torch.

The nations shall see your vindication,
and all the kings your glory;
and you shall be called by a new name
that the mouth of the LORD will give.

You shall be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD,
and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.

You shall no more be termed Forsaken,
and your land shall no more be termed Desolate;
but you shall be called My Delight Is in Her,
and your land Married;

for the LORD delights in you,
and your land shall be married.

For as a young man marries a young woman,
 so shall your builder marry you,
 and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride,
 so shall your God rejoice over you.

Psalm 36:5-10

5 Your love, O LORD, reaches to the heavens, *
 and your faithfulness to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the strong mountains,
 your justice like the great deep; *
 you save both man and beast, O LORD.

Refrain

7 How priceless is your love, O God! *
 your people take refuge under the shadow of your wings.

8 They feast upon the abundance of your house; *
 you give them drink from the river of your delights.

Refrain

9 For with you is the well of life, *
 and in your light we see light.

10 Continue your loving-kindness to those who know you, *
 and your favor to those who are true of heart.

Refrain

We hold hope for all places at home and abroad where there is violence and suffering. We pray for the people in the Middle East who are fleeing the conflicts.

Corinthians 12:1-11

Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers and sisters, I do not want you to be uninformed. You know that when you were pagans, you were enticed and led astray to idols that could not speak. Therefore I want you to understand that no one speaking by the Spirit of God ever says "Let Jesus be cursed!" and no one can say "Jesus is Lord" except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

Gospel

John 2:1-11

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding. When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what concern is that to you and to me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever he tells you." Now standing there were six stone water jars for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. Jesus said to them, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. He said to them,

"Now draw some out, and take it to the chief steward." So they took it. When the steward tasted the water that had become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the steward called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk. But you have kept the good wine until now." Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

Thanksgiving for the Ministry of the Laity

Almighty God, giver of every good gift: Look graciously on your Church, and so guide the minds of those who shall choose a rector for this parish, that we may receive a faithful pastor, who will care for your people and equip us for our ministries; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Let us thank God for those persons who have responded to Christ's call to serve him in the world.

Lord, we know that you call us to serve our neighbor in love, not only in church, but also in the world in which we live.

For those who minister to the sick as medical personnel, or through hospital visitation and volunteer work:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who help with the education of our children, both salaried staff and volunteer aides:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who are actively involved in the political process of our community, state, and nation:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who work for social justice, fair housing, and equal opportunity for all:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who visit the lonely and the shut-in, and for those who find time to listen to the troubled and distressed:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who serve through Meals on Wheels and for those who offer counsel and support at walk-in centers or anonymously over the phone:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who work to make our community a safe and pleasant place to live- engineers, contactors, architects, fire and police personnel:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who work with our children and youth through scouting, tutorial programs, athletic groups, teen centers, and Sunday school:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who seek both to glorify you and to help their neighbor through their work:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For those who serve as homemakers, providing care, nourishment, and a secure haven for families:

We give you thanks, O Lord.

For all those who labor and whose efforts are often unseen and unsung, but who contribute significantly to Christ's ministry in the world:

Work through us and help us always to work for you.

Let us thank God for the love we have experienced in Christ Jesus, which motivates and empowers us to serve other in his name.

O Lord, we recall the words of your Son when he said,
